

GP 506 / The Guard Post

Synopsis

The director from R-Point returns with new military horror GP 506. Strange murder case occurred in an isolated Guard Post (GP) on the South side of the DMZ. All of squad soldiers from GP 506 were killed except one soldier. Every body were cruelly crashed or cut off at their neck. The only survivor is in coma and the case goes into mystery. A military investigator (Chun Ho-jin) is dispatched. And he is facing a strange virus that makes soldiers become zombie, as the bunker post is being once more isolated by the night and the bad weather. The mystery goes more complicated as they discover another survivor, identified as the GP chief and the son of a high ranked general, who refuses to speak. They realise he is not who he says he is, and slowly they uncover the terrible slaughter which had happened after the outspread of the strange virus. It makes men become wildly violent and lose the memory of their acts. But soon the investigator's team itself is victim of the virus... (Source: KOFIC)
